ABOUT

Allengers Infotech

After having established a strong brand name in India and abroad in the field of medical imaging, Allengers felt a strong need to utilize its immense medical experience and bring into the market its own range of medical IT solutions like HMS and PACS.

For this, a separate IT company consisting of highly specialized and qualified IT professionals emerged under the name of Allengers Infotech, which later on expanded into a full-fledged IT firm offering various other IT products & services.

At Allengers Infotech our motto is “ Passion for Innovation ”

With this in mind, a large number of projects have been delivered successfully to national & international clients, within a relatively small period of time, with the list of 'loyal' clients increasing with each passing day.
